

LORD NORTH'S FALL.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED IN NEW YORK LAST NIGHT.

C. M. DEPEW THE SPEAKER.

LORD NORTH AND GEORGE WASHINGTON CONTRASTED.

One Embodied the Spirit of the Past; the Other the Awakened Spirit of the Age—Spain Alone Synthesized With Lord North.

New York, March 19.—This is the anniversary of the downfall of Lord North's ministry, and to-night, marking the occasion, the Empire State Society of the Sons of the American Revolution sat at their annual banquet in this city.

The most notable feature of the occasion was the address of the president of the society, Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, who took occasion to make reference to Spain and her methods of colonial government.

Mr. Depew's address was opened by reference to modern criticism of ancestral trees upon American soil, and with a defense of on the fall of the ministry of Lord North was to recognize the independence of the United States and make the Jay treaty of 1794 between the two countries the great treaty of peace and arbitration between these two English speaking peoples.

Lord North was the Earl of Shelburne. He had the greatest affection and friendship for Benjamin Franklin, the closest relations with John Jay and a reverential admiration for George Washington. At his request Washington sat for a full length portrait of himself. Five years ago that portrait appeared for sale one morning in the gallery of Agassiz. Before night it was the property of another British statesman who has enjoyed a great career, and is destined to a greater one, who knows the United States better than any other Englishman living, and whose friendship for America and Americans ever most cordial and sympathetic. That statesman is the Liberal leader, Lord Rosebery. This portrait of Washington, the best of him I have ever seen, occupying the place of honor in the room of Agassiz, is really a pictorial monument of the fall of the North ministry, the recognition of American independence, of the birth and marvelous growth from the American Revolution of liberal ideas in Great Britain and in Europe. It has also its lessons for to-day. One power alone in Europe sympathized with Lord North and George III. in their attack upon the rights of the American people: one power alone in Europe held off till the last—Spain. The birth and marvelous growth from the American Revolution of liberal ideas in Great Britain and in Europe. It has also its lessons for to-day. One power alone in Europe sympathized with Lord North and George III. in their attack upon the rights of the American people: one power alone in Europe held off till the last—Spain.

The general opinion here is that it is impossible to disregard the persistent rumors, circulating in well-informed circles, that Russia has abandoned her attempt to cause Port Arthur to be handed over to the Russians regarding T'ai-Lien-Wan.

China, it is said, has offered to lease to Russia T'ai-Lien-Wan and to allow the proposed railway from Peking to Kwang Tung. The Chinese government is increasing the Port Arthur garrison to 30,000 men and is sending troops to T'ai-Lien-Wan.

The interview which was to have been had yesterday by M. Dubois, the French chargé d'affaires, with the authorities was postponed, owing to the fact that the Temple of the Sun, China, it is asserted, proposes to yield only to the demands relative to the province of Kwang Si.

Paris, March 19.—A semi-official statement has been issued saying that there is no connection between the demands of the French government in China and the Chinese loan. The French demands reached Peking at the beginning of the month and the negotiations were immediately transferred to Paris, where they are proceeding.

The French charge says that there is no occasion to threaten or menace China with the forcible seizure of a coaling station.

London, March 19.—There was an important cabinet conference this morning, in continuation of yesterday's discussion of the Chinese question. It is reported that Great Britain requests Russia to give guarantees that the warships of the world will be allowed free of duty in Port Arthur.

A special dispatch from Shanghai, received here, says a conspiracy with the object of bringing about a rebellion has been organized by Chinese officials and ranks at Chang-Sha, in the province of Hunan. It is said to have spread to all the provinces bordering on the Yang-Tse-Kiang, and fears are expressed that it may prove to be the most formidable since the Taiping rebellion.

It is professedly a patriotic movement to overthrow the Manchu dynasty and save the central provinces from European control. But it is suspected that the plot emanates from the Manchurians, who are alarmed at the prospect of a division of part of their pickings to the interest on the new loan. The Peking authorities are sending troops to suppress the movement.

The revolutionists are said to have approached British subjects with inducements to join in the rebellion, and have also offered large sums of money for arms.

DECLINE OF MOB VIOLENCE.

The Excellent Record of Virginia on This Question for the Past Four Years.

From the Review of Reviews.

The recent administration of Governor O'Ferrall, of Virginia, may be cited as an illustration in point. During the fourteen years immediately preceding Mr. O'Ferrall's inauguration there were sixty-two lynchings within the bounds of the state; during the last four years there have been but three, and in neither case was the chief executive in any way connected with the crime or the punishment.

The key-note was struck at the beginning of the administration of Governor O'Ferrall, when he issued a proclamation in which he declared that the law-abiding element, led by the better class of citizens, should be given such unmistakable utterance to their sentiment that the law should be enforced.

There is some reason to believe that a time when a captain who wired the governor that it would be impossible to get his company together, and that he was a prisoner threatened with mob violence, got a message from the governor that he was a prisoner threatened with mob violence, got a message from the governor that he was a prisoner threatened with mob violence.

IN REPLY TO PINGREE.

Senators McMillan and Burrows on the Governor's Scheme to Mole the Railroads.

Detroit, Mich., March 19.—United States Senators McMillan and Burrows have replied to letters sent by Governor Pingree, in which the influence of the Michigan senators was solicited in behalf of the governor's bill to increase the taxation upon railroads. These bills are to be presented at the special session of the Michigan legislature, called to assemble next Tuesday.

Senator McMillan's letter admits the possibility that railroads, telegraph companies, etc., are not taxed in proportion to the property they own, but says it is also possible that the railroads, telegraph companies, etc., are not taxed in proportion to the property they own, but says it is also possible that the railroads, telegraph companies, etc., are not taxed in proportion to the property they own.

Senator Burrows simply states that he has no knowledge of the proposed measures, but that the general proposition that the railroads, telegraph companies, etc., are not taxed in proportion to the property they own, but says it is also possible that the railroads, telegraph companies, etc., are not taxed in proportion to the property they own.

There was another young man, contemporary with Washington and Lord North, who had so thoroughly imbibed the teaching and the spirit of Chatham and Burke and Fox that he remained out of power during the whole of the Revolutionary war because he believed the Americans were right. NEGOTIATIONS STILL PENDING WITH FRANCE AND RUSSIA.

FRANCE IS VERY IMPATIENT.

THREATENS THE SEIZURE OF A COALING STATION.

Russia Said to Be Willing to Compromise—Conspiracy Looking Toward a Serious Revolt Said to Have Been Discovered in China.

Peking, March 19.—The recent inactivity of the Russians at Peking is explained by the fact that the Russian negotiators have again been transferred to St. Petersburg, owing to the difficulties encountered here.

The coincidence of the French demands being presented on the eve of the emission of the Chinese loan in London is much commented upon, and it is asserted that France and Russia are trying their best to wreck the loan. Upon the occasion of the last visit of the French ambassador to the Chinese foreign office, the Chinese refused to accede to the French proposals, and the ambassador said that when he next visited the foreign office he would present stronger arguments, and would even threaten active operations from Tong King and the forcible seizure of a coaling station.

The general opinion here is that it is impossible to disregard the persistent rumors, circulating in well-informed circles, that Russia has abandoned her attempt to cause Port Arthur to be handed over to the Russians regarding T'ai-Lien-Wan.
